Foreword

It's a distinctive year

It's the year 1958-59

It's the year we are seniors

the year about which we have long dreamed

And now that it is here, we are beginning to realize it has meant that awards are given in recognition of outstanding achievements that increased emphasis is being placed on scholarship and trained skills that changes in our responsibilities and way of living are natural and inevitable that we are becoming keenly aware of problems facing a world that is changing

And as we realize these things, we know that now, as never before, we need calm and deliberate thinkers and level-headed, trustworthy leaders who will be guided by principles of justice and fairness.

It's a big task!

The Francis Bellamy Flag Award, presented each year to an outstanding high school in the United States in Memory of Francis Bellamy, author of the Pledge of Allegiance, was presented to Lanier

Miss Margrette Miller, donor of the Francis Bellamy Flag Award, presented a plaque, as well as the flag, to Lanier. Participating in the impressive program were Cadet Colonel Bill George, Colonel Vernon "Catfish" Smith, Lanier graduate and All-American football star, Miss Miller, Mr. Swann, and George Hart, Student Council president.

Lanier receives Frances

Dr. William F. Quillian, distinguished graduate of 1931, President of Randolph Macon College, addressed Lanierians and Lanier alumni and friends.

Guests from near and far were representatives of schools receiving the Bellamy Award in other years: C. L. Gordon, Tulsa, Oklahoma; Nancy Pritchard, Portsmouth, Virginia; Lynn Hunter, Indianapolis, Indiana; Owen A. Basil, Annapolis, Maryland; and Wanda Rose, Pantego, North Carolina.

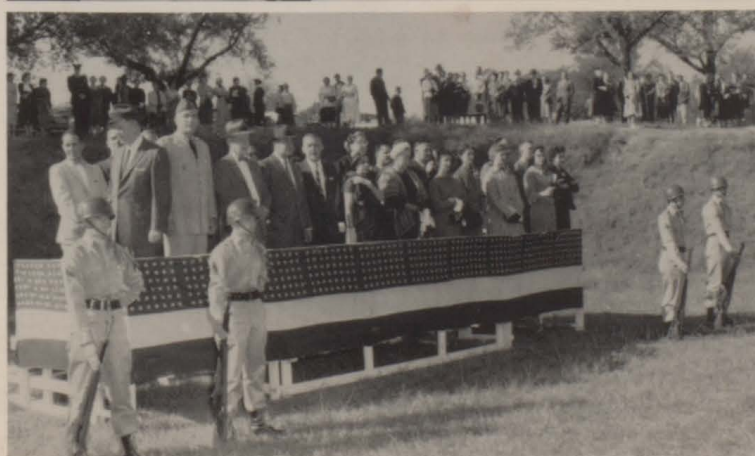

Senior High School
October 13, 1958.
Lanier received this honor because of outstanding alumni, community relations, and
R.O.T.C. and academic programs and is the only Georgia recipient of the award.

Bellamy Flag Award

Everyone joined in congratulating Lanier. In a huge scrapbook were displayed congratulatory letters from dignitaries all over the nation. The R.O.T.C. unit paraded proudly by a flag draped reviewing stand, and the ceremonies were climaxed with the pledge to the flag.

MR. H. S. LASSETER

He walks straight . . . his step is firm . . . his head is high . . . his eye, penetrating . . . his standards, hard and high . . . his methods, honorable . . . and his goal, fixed and definite. To his school he has given himself, and so these characteristics have become those of his school. To each of us at Miller he has lived these qualities, and in us he has brought out and encouraged all that is straight and strong and true. In deep appreciation for a man who lives his faith and gives to us his philosophy and believes in us, we the seniors of 1959 dedicate this book to you, our principal, Mr. H. S. Lasseter.

We

Friends, neighbors

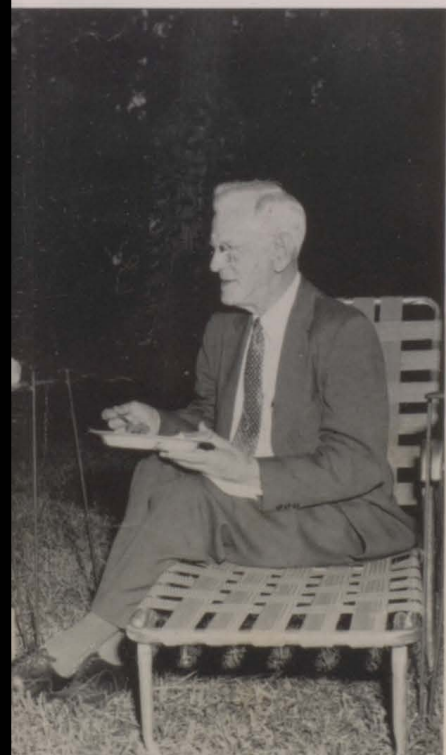

dedicate . . .

. . . fellow principals.

MR. A. J. SWANN

We, the 1959 senior class of Lanier High School, proudly dedicate this year-book to Mr. A. J. Swann. We believe that he is a principal without peer in loyalty and devotion to his school. For his hard work, his great zeal, his adherence to Christian principles, and his faith in us . . . we salute him. We know that Lanier was chosen for the Bellamy Award not only because of the accomplishments of its students and alumni, but also because of the excellence of its principal. We are especially grateful for his firm guiding hand and his deep interest in every part of the life of our school.

In Memoriam

DR. MARK A. SMITH
1893-1958

Dr. Mark Smith, superintendent of Bibb County Schools from 1941 to 1958, was truly outstanding—a man to be remembered and respected. As an administrator and educator, he was recognized and honored by those who had known him and worked with him. As one vitally interested in civic activities, he was admired and loved. People knew Mark Smith.

He was a man of deep convictions and a man of courage who dared to be true to what he believed possible and best. He was far-sighted in his vision, but immediate and demanding in his expectations and actions. His appearance was striking; his manner, gracious and friendly; his personality, definite and dominant.

Varied and sincere were his interests. To those interests he gave of himself unselfishly and worked, not only for boys and girls in schools and clubs, but also with adults in his church and in his civic clubs. Surely the memory of a life well-spent and useful will never die.

Dr. Mark Smith was a great and outstanding man. His life and his use of his talents and abilities are a challenge to us.

Acting Superintendent of Schools

Every year we are appreciative of the part that the members of the board and the superintendent and his office staff have in the education of young people in Bibb County. This year we particularly appreciate their work, because at the death of our superintendent, Dr. Smith, there were many adjustments to be made. We know that under their direction the schools will continue to be a source of pride to all.

Classes . . .

At the turning point of a great change in our system of education, we, in modern secondary schools, have begun to feel the effects of this change. We have, more than ever before, felt the emphasis placed on scholarship. Representative of academic excellence at Lanier and Miller are our Merit Semi-finalists: Harold Barnes, Michael Cass, Ezra Cohen, George Hart, Phillip Haverfield, Michael Levine, Glenn Houser Marshall, Ronnie Owen, John Reinertsen, Clinton Jerry Watson, Gloria Johnson, Rose Weeks, and Patricia Willis.

The presidents of the senior classes at Lanier and Miller are Mike Cass and Linda Carstarphen.

Seniors

Holly Woodruff, Ken Hall, Harriett Norris, Bob Yancey, and Shewell Miller are directors of the senior classes.

Gary Purdy and Pat Lavendar are vice-presidents of the classes.

George Hart is secretary-treasurer of the Lanier senior class and Rennie May is secretary-treasurer of the Miller seniors.

Seniors

Phil Brown, Helen Jones, Bill George, Nan Wilson, and Emory Johnson are also senior class directors.

Activities . . .

From singing to science . . .

from teaching to typing . . .

from history to homemaking . . .

from service in student council to playing in a chess tournament . . .

the range of activities at Miller and Lanier is as wide as our ever-expanding interests.

The Miller-Lanier

The MILLER BUSINESS STAFF members are Sandra Lineberger, Elizabeth Pinkerton, Virginia Council, Kathy Kennedy, Kitsy Miller, Tatie Radcliff, and Sharon Christmas.

The LANIER BUSINESS STAFF members are Murray Brinson, Kirk Domingos, Ed Sell, Jerry Stone, Raines Newberry, Tom Flournoy, Robert Park, and Henry Burns.

Yearbook Staff

The Miller typists are Vivian Paul and Margaret Cobb, who is not pictured. The Miller advisers are Miss Jones, Miss Jackson, and Mrs. Clark.

The Lanier typist is Maxey Smith, and the advisers are Mrs. Matthews, Miss Lamar, and Mr. Sorrells.

The Lanier

Poet Leader reporters are Clay Adams, Jimmy Chester, Meade Bernard, and Ken Hamilton, seated; and David Baker, Kirt Domingos, Fred McLeod, Joe Massey, Larry Brown, George Hart, Wayne Bowers, and Murray Brinson, standing.

The POET LEADER business staff members are Bobby Holden, Mike Bashuk, business manager; Joe Stephens, associate business manager; and Melvin Haskins, seated; and Shawn Miller, Ezra Cohen, and Mr. F. C. McCullough, adviser, standing.

Poet Leader

Some look hopefully for their pictures or a mention of their names; all are engrossed in the latest school news on the day the Poet Leader comes out.

Honor Group

Other members of the Honor Group are, first row: Jack Bond, Fred McLeod, Wayne Bloodworth, David Young, Roscoe Stinetorf, Charles Brittain. Second row: Dan Dixon, Harold Chapman, George Sawyer, Charlie Jordan, Bill George, Houser Marshall. Third row: Glenn Kite, King Solomon, Bill McCarthy, Harold Barnes, Raymond Patterson, Kenneth Parker, Larry Brown. Fourth row: John Reinertsen, Emory Johnson, Al Stevenson, George Hart, David Howard, Gene McClure, and Clay Adams.

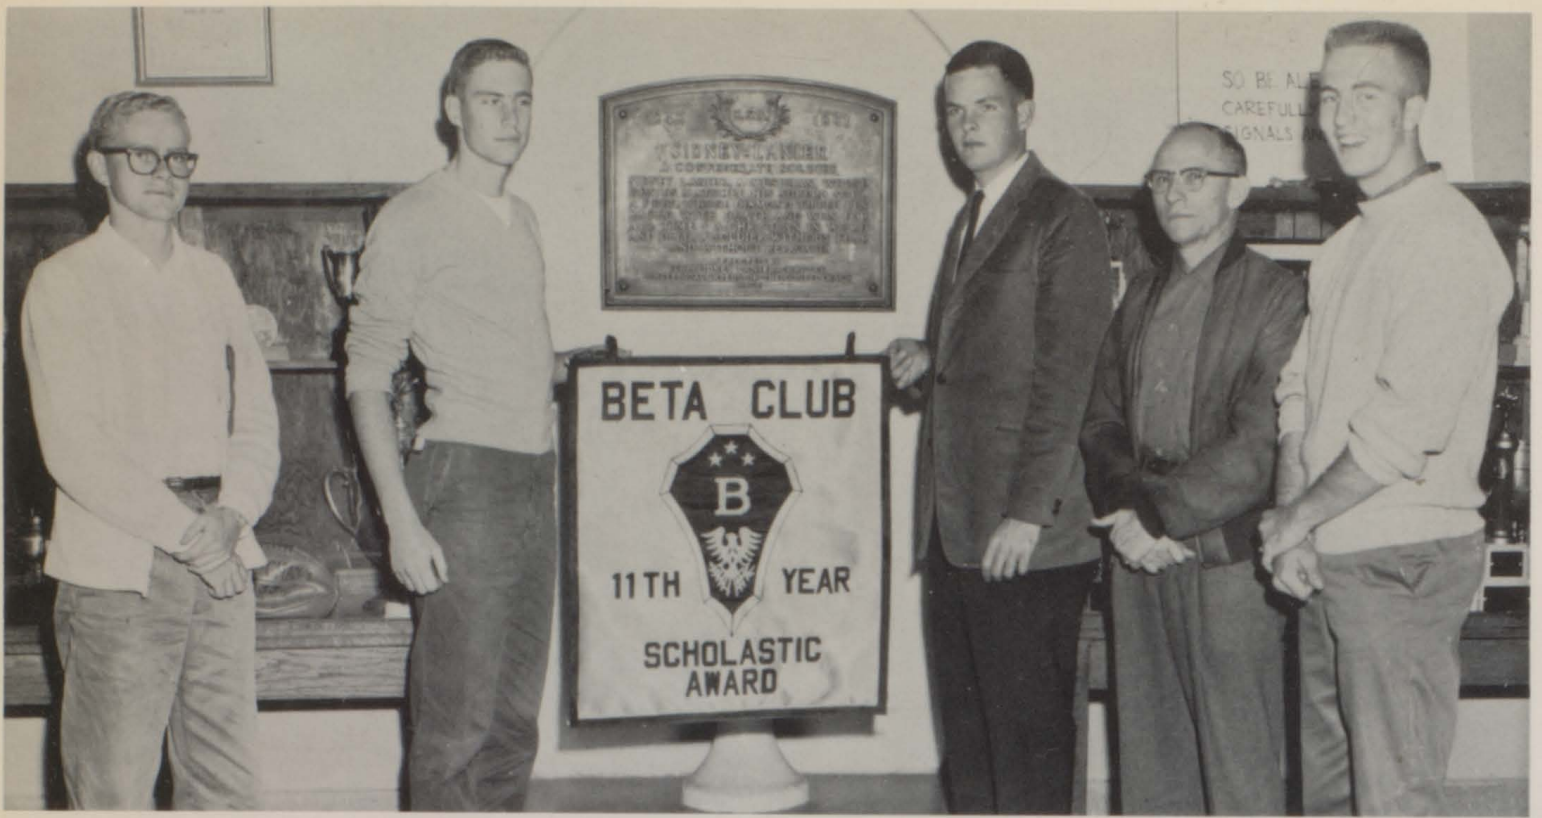

HI-Y officers are John Reinertsen, vice-president; Tom Flournoy, secretary-treasurer; Butch Slaughter, president; and Mr. Gus Parker, adviser.

Hi-Y

The HI-Y club each year performs many useful services for the school and community.

Officers of the Beta Club are Ken Hall, secretary; Emory Johnson, president; George Hart, vice-president; Mr. Aubrey Floyd, adviser; Bill George, treasurer. The club recognizes the supervisions with the largest number of names on the honor roll each six weeks with a banner which is placed in the classroom.

The Lanier

Each year new members of the Beta Club are inducted in an impressive ceremony. Juniors or seniors maintaining an "A" average the preceding year are eligible for membership.

Beta Honorary

Junior members of Beta are, first row: John McBrearty, Bill Goetter, Ralph Small, Charles Cook, George Grier, Sandy Owens, Alan Forney, Ben Latham, Bob Hartley, Jerry Gleaton. Second row: John Atkinson, Robert Towe, Jimmy Spivey, Gary Carter, Tommy Hollingsworth, Bill Brake, Henry Flournoy, Tom Dennis, Joe Atkinson. Third row: Harold Levine, Worth Williams, Douglas McElmurray, Frank Lamb, Cecil Baldwin, Sam Wood, Jere Smith, Dempsey Brown, Bill Moseley. Fourth row: David Baker, Sam Lamback, Dennis Huthnance, Jimmy Vinson, Arnold Holmstrom, Bobby Frank, Tom Pittman, Walton Smith, Virgil Duncan, Lee Draughton. Not pictured: Steve Chapman.

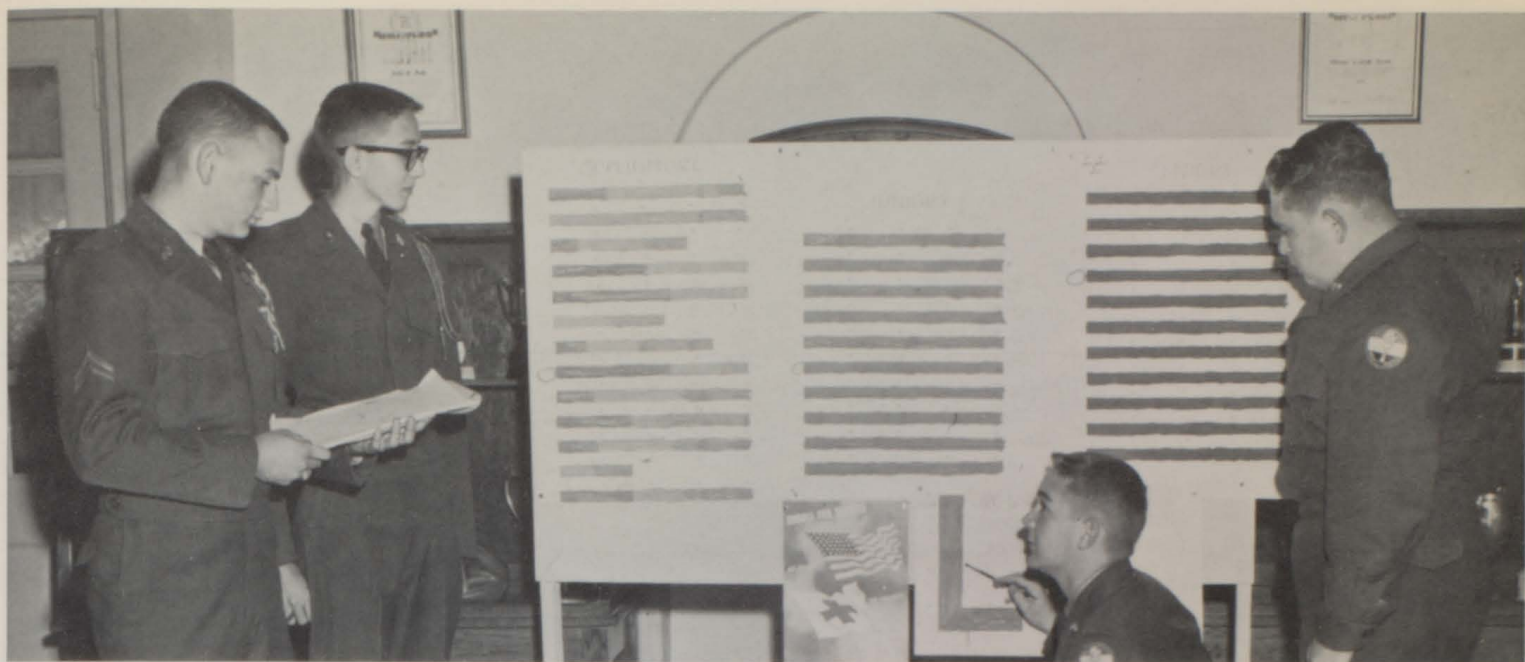

LANIER JUNIOR RED CROSS officers are Ralph Small, public relations chairman; Danny O'Neal, vice-president; Joe Middlebrooks, secretary; Joe Timberlake, president; Miss Alice Lott, adviser; Harold Chapman, treasurer; and Gary Purdy, honorary vice-president.

Lanier Junior

The Junior Red Cross is a valuable service club, conducting a successful drive for funds which are used for the benefit of the school each year and giving its members valuable training in leadership and opportunities to serve others.

The bulletin board is a center of interest during the Red Cross fund drive, when supervisions compete with one another to reach one hundred percent participation. Posting results are Melvin Haskins, Harold Chapman, David Fountain, and Richard Olnick, who won a prize for leading the drive in the supervision making the largest contribution.

A Red Cross representative in each supervision was responsible for leading the drive for funds.

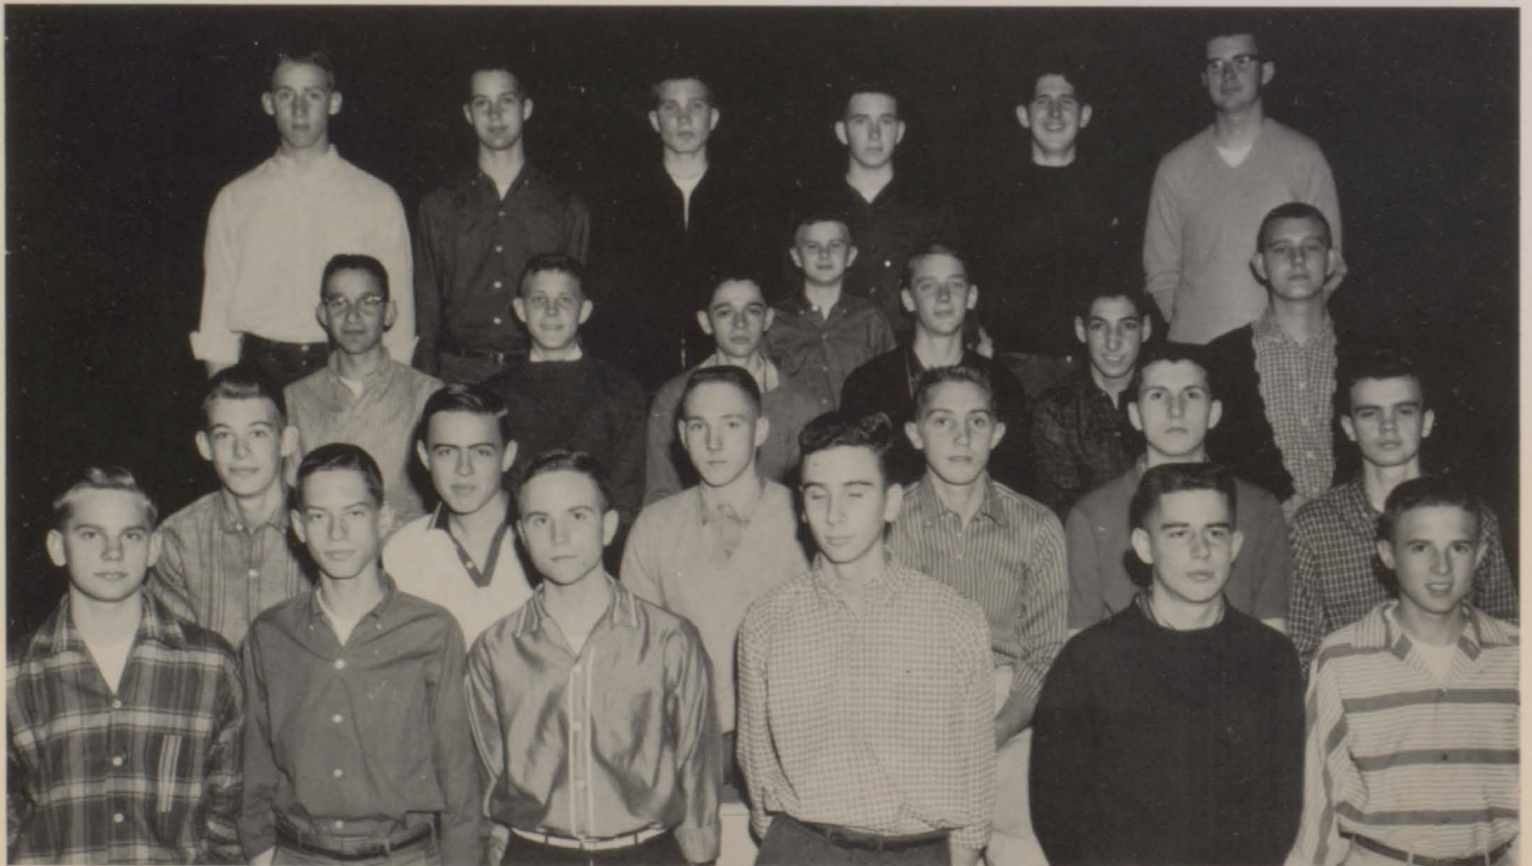

The Demosthenian officers are John Atkinson, secretary; Lee Draughon, treasurer; David Howard, first vice-president; Gary Purdy, president; seated: Mrs. Elizabeth Glass, adviser; Walton Smith, second vice-president; Joe Atkinson, chairman of publicity; Bill Brake, chairman of debates and speeches; and Sandy Owens, parliamentarian.

The Demosthenians

The Lanier literary societies train speakers and debaters.

Officers of Sidney Lanier are Ansel Dekle, secretary; James Hardeman, sergeant-at-arms; Charles Wolfram, president; Steve Chanin, treasurer, sitting; and Frank Darnell, parliamentarian; Mr. Stewart Cunningham, adviser; David Geiger, vice-president, standing.

The Sidney Lanierians

Each year Lanierians are outstanding in oratorical contests.

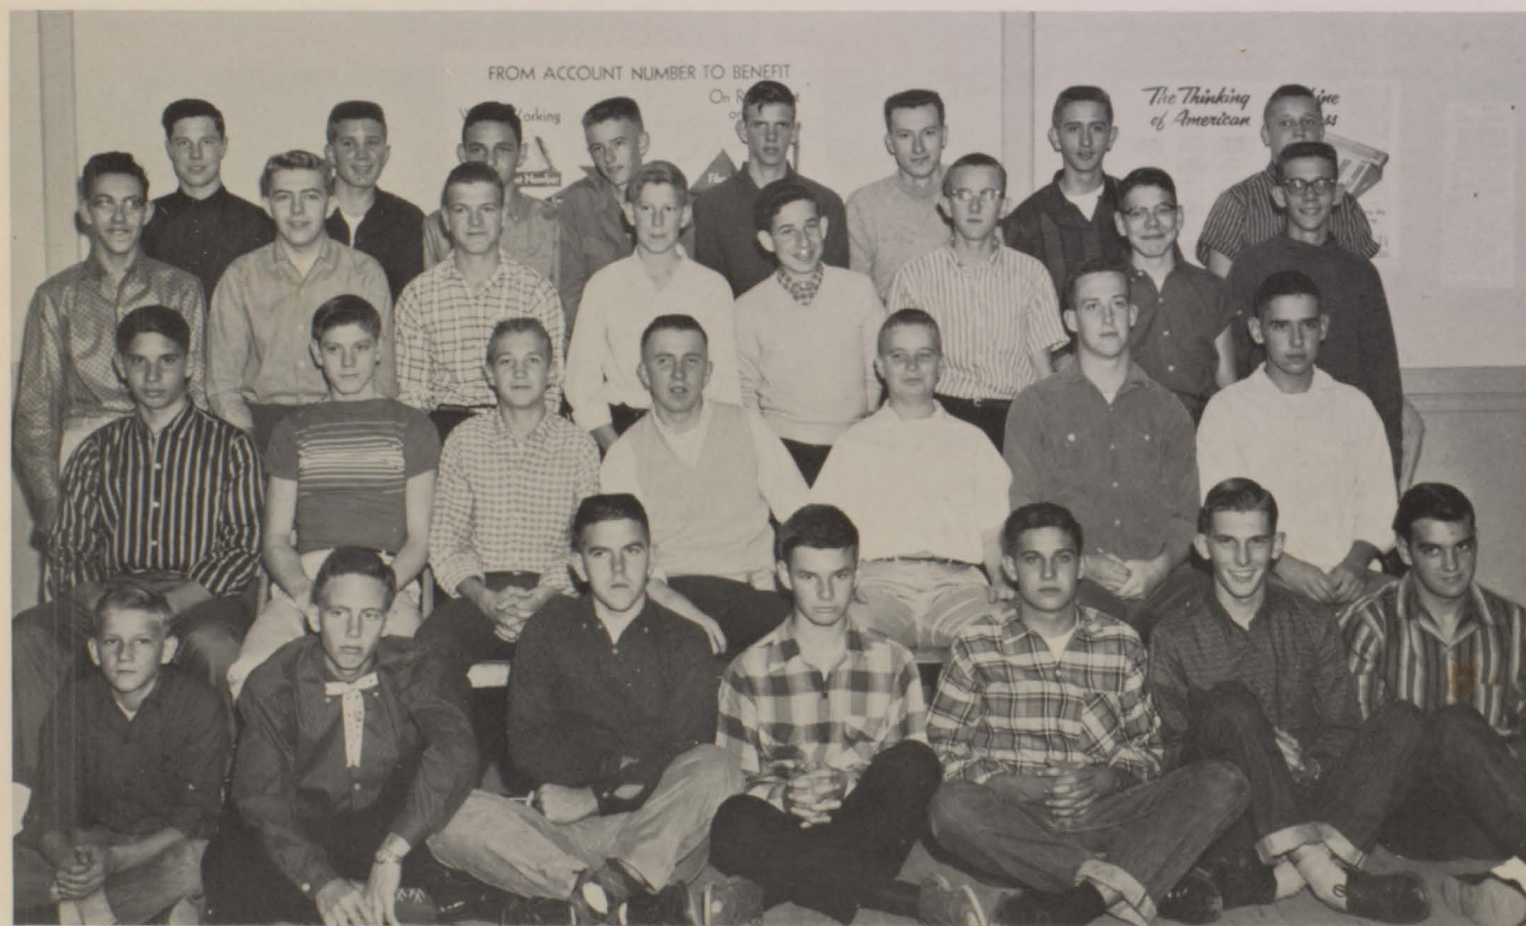

The Business Club officers this year are Emory Jiles, treasurer; Billy Thomas, program chairman; Jerry Watson, secretary; James Prince, president; Bob Stevenson, vice-president; Kenneth Davis, scrapbook chairman; Charles Cook, parliamentarian.

The Business Club

The Business Club is a well organized group whose members make a valuable contribution to local, state, and national activities of the F.B.L.A.

The ORANGE and GREEN, the Lanier literary magazine, published in the spring each year, had as a senior staff an entire English class. The 1959 editor was Stanley Booth, in the center of the front row, and associate editors were Steve Chanin and Charles Brittain, who are third and fifth in the front row.

The Orange and Green

4-H CLUB officers and adviser are Mr. D. L. Maxwell, county agent; Terry Beckham, vice-president; Francis Bullington, reporter; Virgil Duncan, secretary-treasurer, and Robert Park, president.

Lanier 4-H Club

4-H Club members engage in projects in leadership, health, safety, and many other worthwhile endeavors.

Officers of the Lanier chapter of the FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA are Benjie Bagley, secretary; Donald Mailey, 2nd vice-president; Bill Lumpkin, representative; Franklin Stokes, 1st vice-president; Lynn Ivey, president; Leroy Hunt, treasurer, and Mr. Herschel Simmons, adviser.

Future Farmers of America

Lanier Future Farmers are an active group, winning prizes each year for projects in raising livestock and other farming activities. The club also maintains a farm planted in pine trees.

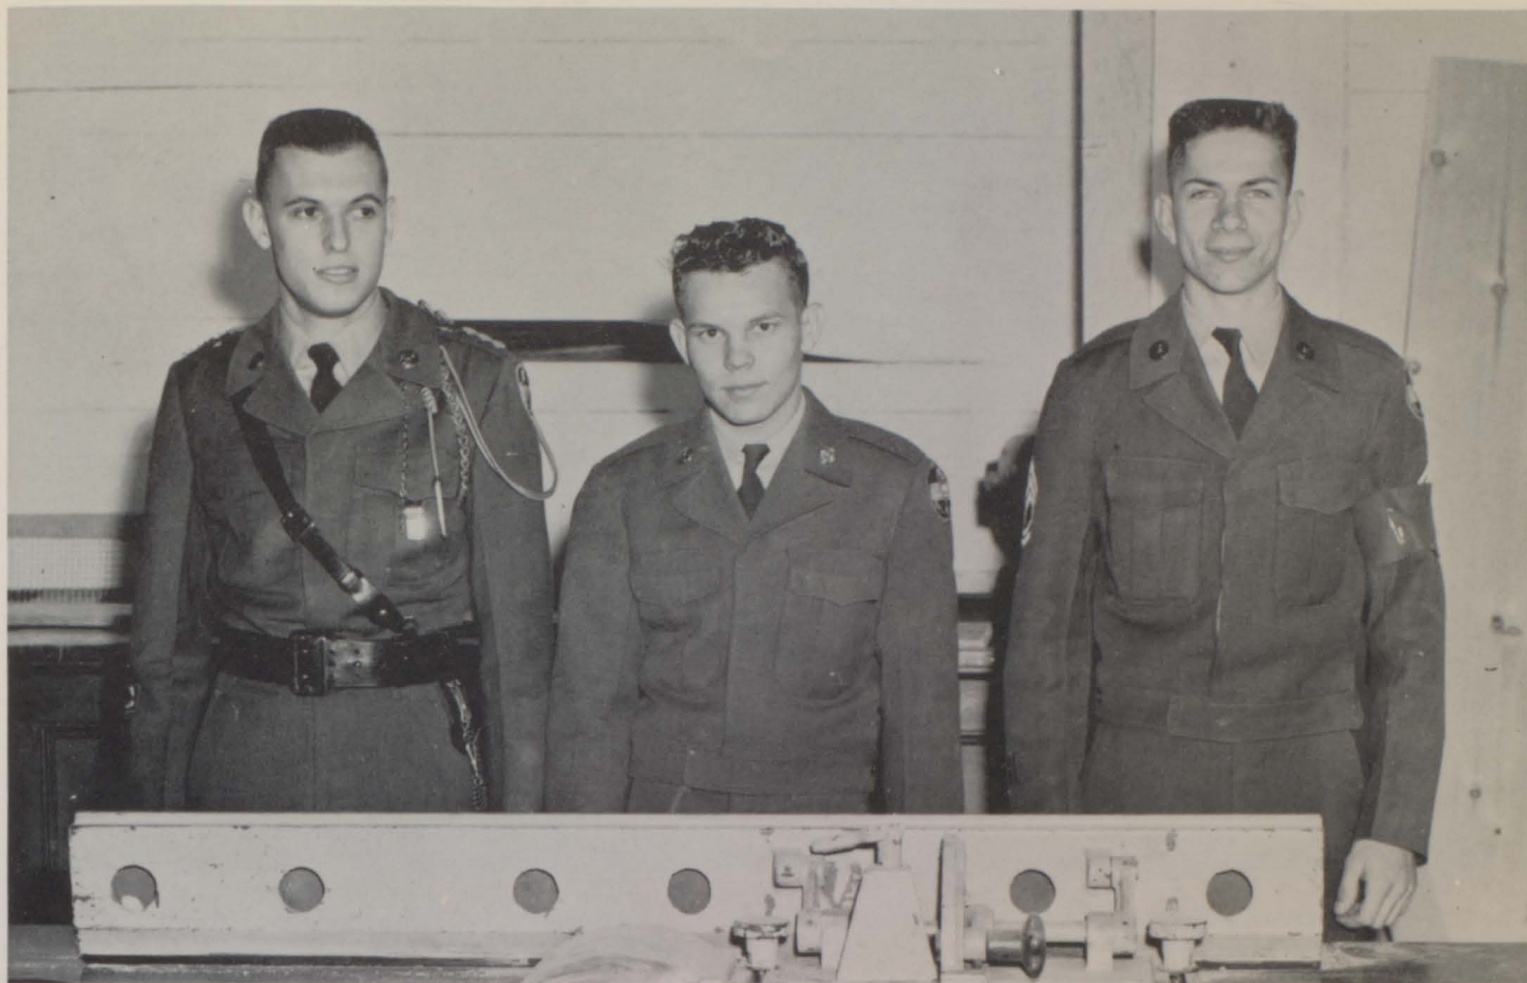

CHESS CLUB officers are Philip Lamb, 1st vice-president; Mr. Robert Taylor, adviser; Jimmy Stokes, president; John McBrearty, 2nd vice-president, and Billy Land, secretary.

Lanier Chess Club

Large numbers of hopeful and eager players meet twice a month for instruction and competition in the ancient game of chess.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS CLUB officers are Raymond Patterson, secretary and treasurer; Joe Carroll, president, and Joe Bruskie, vice-president.

Industrial Arts Club

Club members shown here with their adviser, Mr. McCord, handle many tools with skill.

On display in the lobby during American Education Week were these fine pieces of furniture made by industrial arts students. They are Harold Keys, Billy Lawless, and James McNeese.

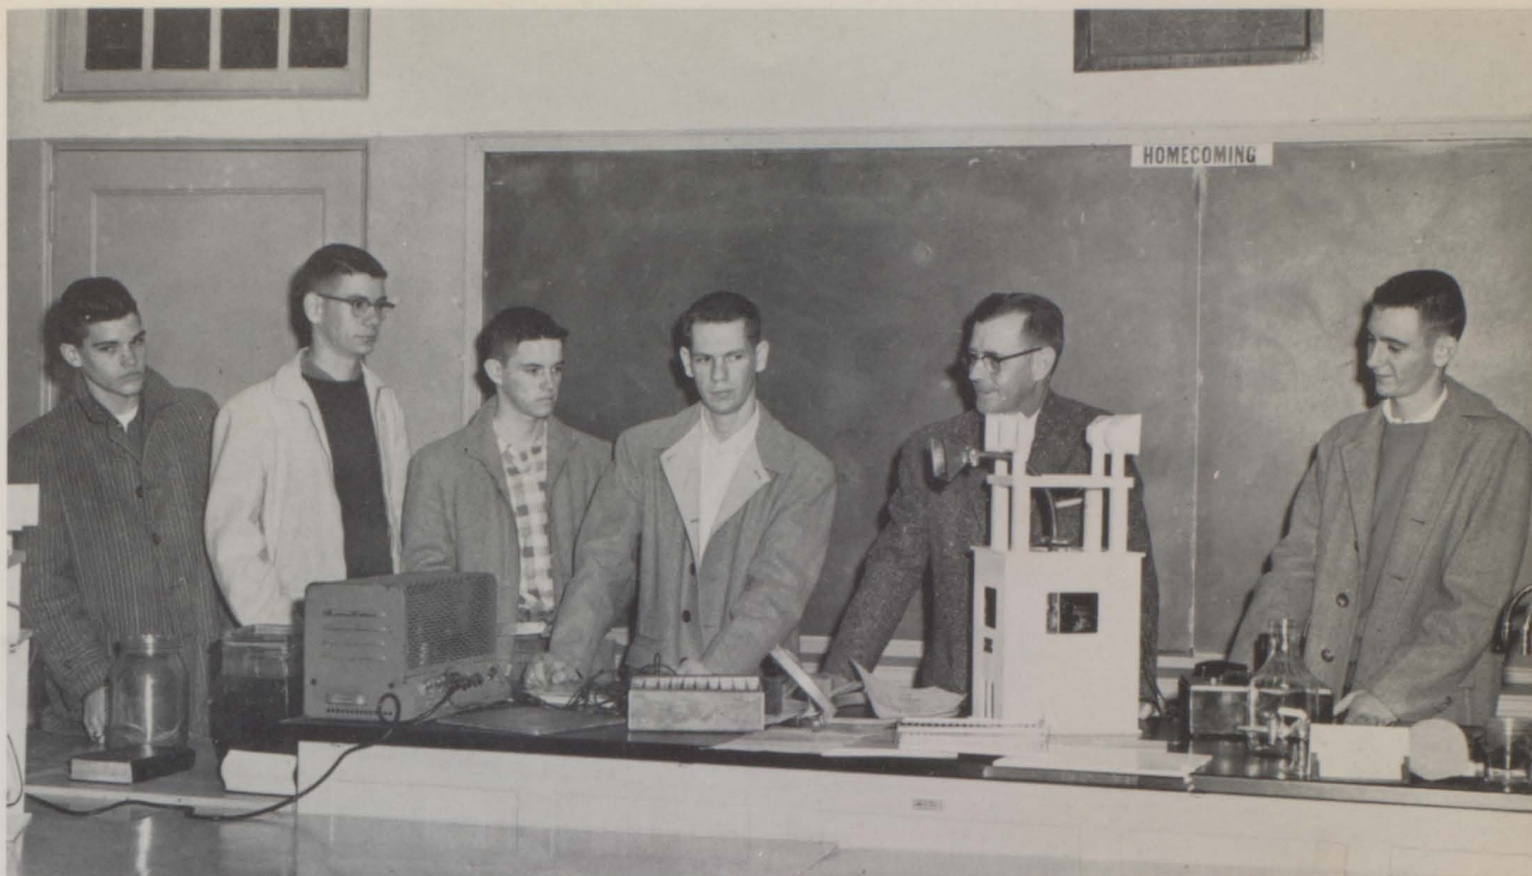

SCIENCE CLUB officers are Bill Brake, 2nd vice-president; David Young, 1st vice-president; Joe Massey, president; Mr. Robert Taylor, adviser, and Phillip Haverfield, secretary-treasurer.

The Lanier

Science club members are tomorrow's chemists and physicists.

One of several speakers to visit the Science Club was Mr. W. R. Peacock. Those watching his microwave demonstration are Joe Massey, David Young, Bill Brake, Phillip Haverfield and Roy Peacock.

Science Club

Science Club members enter many projects in the State Science Fair.

KEY CLUB officers and adviser are Bill George, treasurer; Emory Johnson, vice-president; George Hart, District Governor; Ken Hall, president; Bob Yancey, secretary. and Mr. C. E. Goss, adviser.

The Key Club

The Key Club, sponsored by the local Kiwanis Club, carries out service projects throughout the year.

Lanier Spanish Club

Club members participate in skits, learn songs and the customs of Spanish speaking countries.

AMERICANISM CLUB adviser and officers are Mr. Landon Brent, Jere Smith, president; Tom Dennis, vice-president; and Richard Rader, secretary-treasurer.

Americanism Club

Aside from promoting Americanism, the Americanism Club is a service club with a Christmas project for the needy.

HISTORY CLUB officers and advisers are Jim Willis, vice-president; Jim Carson, secretary-treasurer, seated; and standing are Mr. M. L. Brannen, Mr. Bobby McElroy, advisers; and Henry Tift, president.

History Club

The History Club membership is made up of sophomores who are especially interested in broadening their knowledge of history.

LANIER STUDENT COUNCIL sponsors a Christmas program and many other interesting projects. Officers and adviser are Charles Wolfram, parliamentarian; Gary Purdy, vice-president; George Hart, president; John Reinertsen, secretary and treasurer; Jere Smith, chaplain.

The Student Council members are presidents of the school clubs, editors of the school publications, the cadet colonel and the sophomore, junior, and senior class presidents. Members pictured below are, first row: Emory Johnson, Butch Slaughter, Ken Hall, Jim Willis. Second row: Tommy Johnson, Joe Timberlake, Bill George, James Prince. Third row: Joe Massey, Robert Park, Joe Carol, Jimmy Spivey. Fourth row: David Geiger, Danny O'Neal, Philip Ivey, Jimmy Stokes. Fifth row: Charles Wolfram, Gary Purdy, George Hart, John Reinertsen, and Jere Smith.

An important student council program is the one at the first meeting of the Lanier Auxiliary when members of the Council inform interested parents about Lanier's clubs. Mike Cass was the very able spokesman for the club presidents.

Student Council

The trophy case never looked like this before! When Student Council sponsored the election of a homecoming queen photographs of the Miller girls who were contestants were put on display.

The Paper Shop Assistants at Lanier are Charles Fowler, Gene McClure, Tommy Richardson, and Harold Levine.

The Miller Bank Officers are Jane Brewer, president; and Linda Smith, vice-president.

Book Shops, Banks

The Library Assistants for Lanier, pictured here with Miss McCaw, are Larry Harper, Harvey Haines, Richard Webb, Grover Dozier, Charles Bishop, and Frank Lanneau.

Miller is indebted to these girls, workers in the bookstore. They are Gloria Massey, Theresa Baird, Dottie Turk, assistant manager; Mary Trawick, manager; Linda NeSmith, and Shirley Byrd.

These Sophomores render valuable service to the school and learn for themselves something of the art of managing a school library.

At Miller . . . Library Assistants

These Juniors and Seniors give their time as they too work in the library and carry out the responsibilities given to them by the librarian.

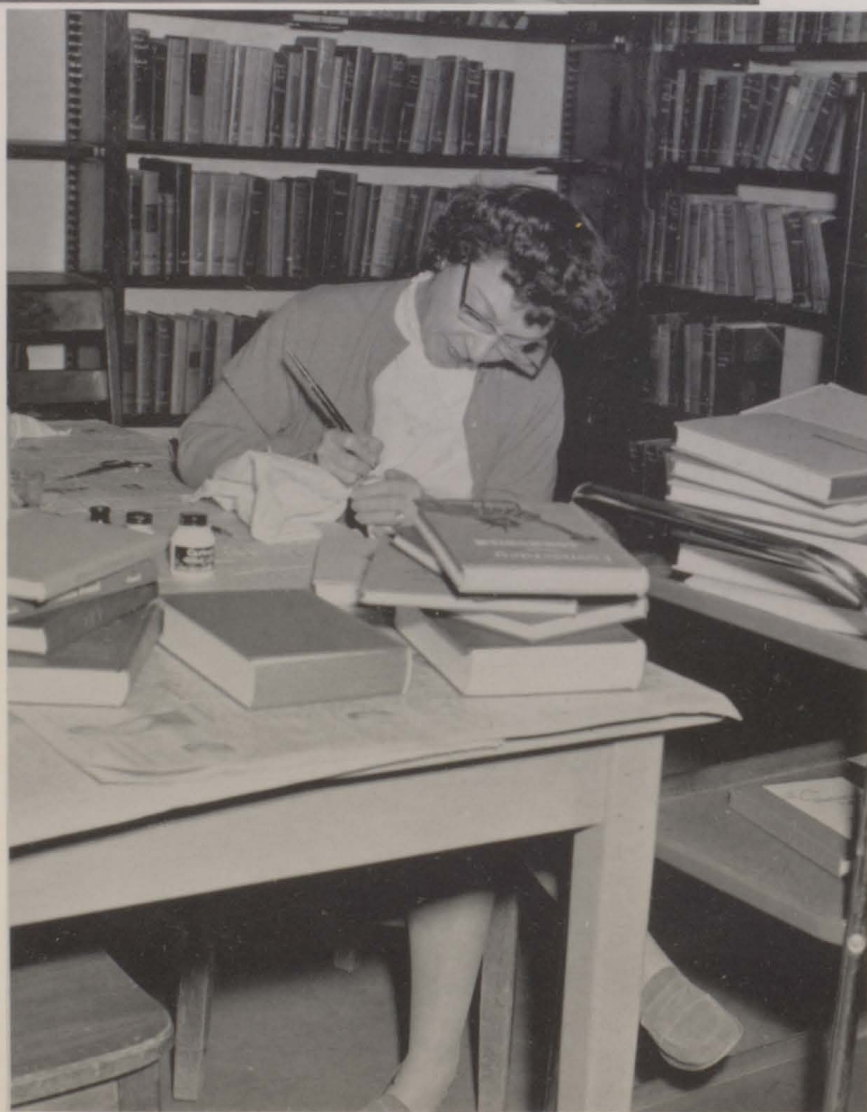

One of the tasks of the library assistants is the checking out of books. Betsy Hales stamps the book as Charlotte Cook, another assistant, correctly fills out her card.

In Miller's Library

The photographer snapped this picture of Mrs. Dixon Watson, the librarian, as she worked, surrounded by stacks of new books.

A popular and helpful spot in the library is the Career Corner. Interesting bulletin boards depicting varied careers open to Millerites make this a spot of value. Carole Massey here seems interested in possibilities of a career in physical education.

Guidance

Tests and their interpretation and application are helpful. Miss Jackson, of the Guidance Committee, talks with Melanie Riddle as together they study the outcomes of Melanie's test. This guidance in the selection of courses of study and in the selection of colleges and future occupations is most helpful.

The officers of Tri-Hi-Y are Beth Davis, president; Betsy Livingston, chaplain; Virginia Ezell, vice-president; and Becky Wilson, corresponding secretary. Seated are Sandra Lineberger, secretary; Dot Curran, sergeant-at-arms; and Tatie Radcliffe, treasurer.

Tri-Hi-Y . . . Officers, Council . . .

The Executive Council is composed of these group captains. Prepared with notebooks and pencils are Beth Wilson, Dottie Waldrop, Sophie Clark, Kathy Kennedy, and Pat Lavender. On the second row are Linda Sutton, Ann Howard, Merri Massey, Harriet Varn, and Martha Talley.

... and Members ...

Jimbo!
 I can't think of anything suitable to say at this moment. Maybe I'll say when I get inspired by my lovely smiling Hotel.

Ann Etheridge, vice-president; Donna Powers, treasurer; Elizabeth Davidson, president; and Kaye Smith, secretary, listen intently as they and Mrs. Fred Powers—mother of Donna and the club's mother adviser—hear a suggestion from a member of a new project to be undertaken by the club.

Future Nurses of America

These girls have already decided that their interest is in the field of nursing. Carefully planned programs and community projects do much to keep them interested and informed of the possibilities in this field.

Grouped around the desk of their faculty adviser are these Red Cross officers: Frances Baldwin, secretary; Rose Moody, publicity chairman; Alice Ramey, vice-president; Harriet Varn, secretary; and Ann Maxwell, president of the club.

Forming the membership of the club are these girls. Representing their supervisions, they meet twice a month during Activity Period to learn of the planned work of the organization and to aid in worthwhile projects.

In the Chemistry lab are Sally Murphey, secretary; Sharon Christmas, program chairman; Marilee Kinard, president; Linda Sutton, treasurer; and Marian Smith, vice-president. Officers of the Chemistry Club, they seem to be intent on this experiment.

Chemistry Club

Meeting requirements of the club for membership are these Juniors and Seniors. Chemistry is a one-year course, open to girls of the upper classes who are interested in science. Members make field trips, have speakers, and they themselves perform experiments in their club work.

Quite concerned and curious are these Biology officers as they are caught with the body or bones. Lynda Whitley and Latane Nelms, of the program committee; Raye Coleman, program chairman; Gail Rogers, president; Rosemary Lawson, treasurer; Ginny Whitener, vice-president, and Bo Sanderson—these are officers of this newly formed club.

Biology Club

Although Biology is a required course, to these girls it is most interesting. Meeting during Activity Period, they further their study of this branch of science.

Club officers seem to be enjoying Mrs. Helen Farmer Popejoy as she talks to them. Having successful business men and women talk to them and plan with them is helpful to these future business women.

Miller Better Business Club

Seated around the table are Vivian Paul, president; Fay Lyles, vice-president; Cathy Harper, scrapbook editor; Mrs. Popejoy; Linda Beasley, secretary; Jane Brewer, corresponding secretary, and Virginia Bowers, treasurer.

These are some of the members of the club who will soon be young business girls—putting into practice skills and talents developed in class and club.

The Music Club is a popular club and it is naturally a large club. Music—in all its phases—appeals to all and the girls go to Music Club and love it! A favorite gathering spot is around the piano. Holly Woodruff, secretary; Betsy Livingston, treasurer; Tatie Radcliffe, scribe; Camille Moseley, program chairman; Dot Williams, vice-president; Kay Bateman, sergeant-at-arms, and Caryl Allen, program chairman, know what's in store for them and club members when their president, Judye Jones, puts her hands on the keys.

Music Club . . . Officers and Members

Best Citizens

Hi! Who can resist? Girls at Miller can't, for they chose these as Best Citizens. From nominations of the Seniors, these three had the most votes for Best Citizen. After the votes of the Faculty had been taken, the photographer snapped this picture. Congratulations to Pat Lavender and Rennie May, the runners-up and to Linda Carstarphen, on the right, the Best Citizen!

Honor Group

The Miller Honor Group is composed of those students who have maintained high grades throughout each of their three years at senior high school.

To be eligible for membership in this select group, a student must have at least six honor points at the end of her Sophomore year and twelve honor points at the end of her Junior year. A senior, to be worthy of the title of Honor graduate, must have a minimum of seventeen honor points at the completion of her high school career.

The two highest honors bestowed upon Miller girls, those of Valedictorian and Salutatorian, will be given to two members chosen from this group.

The members are, Alice Ramey, Linda Squires, Pat Haardeman, Linda Carstarphen, Shewell Miller, Betsy Miller, Anne Booth, Mary Trawick, Elaine Scharfman, Caryl Allen, Mary Faye Martin, Brenda Ward, Joyce Fincher, Pat Lavender, Tatie Radcliff, Linda Sutton, Beth Wilson, Patricia Manning, Shirley Towles, Roxie Arrington, Vivian Paul, Dottie Turk, Margaret Holloway, Sally Murphey, Aileen Arnold, Gloria Johnson, Patricia Willis, Aileen Smith, Becky Wilson, Ann Hutchings, Sophie Clark, Kathy Kennedy, Theresa Baird, Jane Brewer, Ann Wellons and Linda Bridgeman.

Student Council officers are Mimi Harrison, corresponding secretary; Charlotte Raley, treasurer; Dottie Waldrop, vice-president; Rennie May, president, and Virginia Ezell, secretary.

Student Council

Members of the club are composed of representatives chosen from each supervision. They are an active group, and it is this club that plans assemblies, projects and activities for the student body.

The Executive Council is composed of presidents of the three classes and five seniors selected by the club president. Here, proudly wearing identifying bands, Council members enjoy a quiet moment before their work begins at an assembly.

and Their Activities . . .

Bonnie Sue Johnson proudly adds her supervision's box to others for distribution to the needy in Macon. This is one of the Club's big projects.

At the Christmas assembly, council members formed a living Christmas tree on a stage filled with presents for children adopted by the supervisions for Christmas.

The officers of Beta Club do a difficult but outstanding job. Those who lead the club this year are Aileen Arnold, historian; Brenda Ward,, vice-president; Alice Ramey, secretary; Margaret Holloway, president; Sally Murphey, treasurer; and Mary Faye Martin, corresponding secretary. Here they review plans for the coming year.

Beta Club

The Beta Club's seventy-five members are selected according to the three-fold purpose of the club: to promote character, to cultivate leadership, and to stimulate scholarship. Alice, Margaret, and Mr. Lasseter welcome into the organization one of the lucky new members, Kathy Kennedy.

The Beta seniors, at the top, and Beta juniors below them, proudly wear their gold and black pins, signifying membership in Beta. To be considered for Beta, a junior must be a member of the Honor Group and a senior must have a B average since her entrance at Miller Senior High. The girls meeting these requirements are then scored according to personality charts, offices held and grades. The Faculty and the old members of Beta then vote on the list presented. Girls are elected by a majority vote.

New members are making their pledge to Beta.

Scenes From the Senior Play

The Dramatics Club provides an opportunity to train and develop dramatic talent and ambitions. Able members may achieve membership in the national Thespian organization, and it is from this Miller troupe that the officers are elected.

Standing around the Dramatics Club bulletin board are the club officers: Ann Mason, president; Kay Radcliffe, treasurer; Allene Smith, vice-president, and Carol Anderten, secretary.

Dramatics Club

The members of the Dramatics Club are Miller girls who are interested in speech and dramatics.

The Miller Thespians, Troupe 643, are outstanding members of the Dramatics Club. Their main purpose is to develop a spirit of active and intelligent interest in dramatics. The Thespians are, Kay Massey, Carol Anderten, Allene Smith, Francis Willis, Kay Radcliffe, and Ann Mason.

Thespians

The Dramatics Club sponsors a radio program every Saturday morning on school news. The radio announcers are chosen for excellence in their speech. The announcers, seated around the microphone, waiting to go on the air, are Kay Massey, Carla Daugherty, Bunnie Price, Virginia Council, and Carol Anderten.

and Their Projects —

The Dramatics Club also presents a one-act play and a three-act play annually. Shown here are girls practicing for the one-act play.

Future Teachers of America

These officers of the club—Future Teachers of America—stop as they make necessary preparations to show a film to their club members. Peggy McDaniel, president; Carol Jones, scrapbook chairman; Irene Bell, secretary-treasurer, and Jo Ann Howington, vice-president, are the club officers.

And these are the teachers of the future.

Congratulations to the Senior Class of

Miller and Lanier

DUNLAP CHEVROLET COMPANY

Mr. Swann congratulates Raines Newberry for selling 115 annuals—on his right is Phelps Wade who sold 112. Looking on from the left are John Hendrix, Scottie Chew, Coleman Tidwell and Walter Watkins.

Cookie Watson, Charlotte Thompson, Patricia Layton, and Carol Jones are Juniors who sold ads and subscriptions for this book.

Seniors who sold ads and took subscriptions for the annual: Virginia Council, Elizabeth Pinkerton, Sandra Lineberger, Sharon Christmas and Tatle Radcliffe.

Charlotte Raley and Jerry Drew who sold the most ads for the annual at Miller joyfully toss the contracts into the air not used this year. (Painfully did they pick them up, for they will be used for next year's annual).

Another group of Juniors who sold ads and subscriptions for the book is composed of Lillian Ruth Groce, Barbara Hunter and Harriet Hutson in the back row, and in the front Jerry Drew and Shirley Clance.

All Miller girls became quite accustomed to seeing this group in the hall during first supervision. Kathy Kennedy, Kitsy Miller, Charlotte Raley, and Faye Jordan checked records, and counted the money from the sale of annuals.
